

FLORIDA FOUNDATION FOR ARCHITECTURE GRANT APPLICATION PROCEDURES

The Florida Foundation for Architecture is a non-profit organization that promotes the value of architecture to audiences beyond the profession. For grant funds to be considered, the proposed program must clearly support this mission.

Grants are available for a wide variety of programs that promote architecture in the Florida-Caribbean Region. The Foundation is educationally oriented and the following types of programs will be considered for grant assistance.

- Exhibits and research programs
- Public forums
- Historic preservation
- Architectural criticism
- Books, pamphlets, brochures
- Document preservation
- Site touring programs
- Conferences
- Museum programs
- Television/radio programs
- In-school architectural programs
- Architectural programs delivered to the general public
- Architectural programs delivered to related professions

Please note list is not all-inclusive, and other similar programs will be considered. Outside-the-Box programs are encouraged, but requests for grants that are in any way tied to a political campaign, candidate, or political issue will not be considered by the Trustees.

Grant applicants must complete the attached form. Attach additional sheets as necessary to completely describe the program. Include a detailed recap of estimated expenses and other available funding sources.

If awarded a grant, the applicant must properly credit the Foundation in announcements and publications, and deliver copies of the publications, program materials, etc., in both digital and printed format as agreed in the terms of the grant.

Proposals for grants from the Foundation should be submitted through AIA Florida headquarters:
