AIA Florida Newsletter for emerging architects

vol 2011, issue november

Dear Kelly,

Each month, AIA Florida's goal is to provide all of Florida's emerging and young architects with the most up-to-date news about what matters most.

U + AIA Membership Renewal = New iPad2

AIA Membership renewal is right around the corner, and AIA has some great new incentives for AIA and Associate members. All AIA members who renew their membership for 2012 before Dec. 31 are eligible to take a FREE Virtual Convention CE course. For those who complete this FREE course by the end of January, you will be entered to win one of five iPad2's!

CLICK HERE for more information and renew today!

AIA is also offering an installment plan. If you enroll in this plan between now and Apr. 30, you can choose to pay your dues in six payments, rather than the full amount at once. See below for the enrollment breakdown:

- * Oct. 2011 - Jan. 31, 2012: Up to six installments
- * Feb. 1, 2012 - Apr. 30, 2012: Up to five installments
- * Mar. 1, 2012 - Apr. 30, 2012: Up to four installments
- * Apr. 1, 2012 - Apr. 30, 2012: Up to three installments

Free Webinars for IDP Supplemental Credit

AIA KnowledgeNet offers AIA members and interns an opportunity to earn CE credit or IDP hours...for FREE! Choose topics such as Competitive Intelligence, EnergyStar v3, and more. Registration is required for each webinar. Visit HERE to register today!

Changes to IDP

The IDP program will soon introduce the final phase of IDP 2.0 in April of 2012. Beginning in 2009, NCARB began making changes to IDP, the first major changes to the program since the 1970's. The changes to the program offer many benefits to interns by allowing them to complete some of the experience requirements during periods of unemployment, expanding program definitions, and simplifying the reporting process.
