

Project Designer

RDB Design Associates (RDB) is an architectural and interior design firm located in Jacksonville, Florida and we celebrated 27 years in business this summer. We design a broad range of project types including: Corporate, Health Care, Education, Hospitality/Resort and Industrial for both private and public sector clients. Approximately 80% of our business comes from repeat clients with whom we have developed long lasting relationships and our firm has a very strong backlog of on-going and future contracts. For more information about our firm visit our website at www.rdbi.net

RDB is expanding and searching for design professionals that meet the following minimum qualifications:

- Architectural degree from an accredited U.S. university. Registration is not required.
- 3-5 years of architectural work experience with architectural firms located in the U.S.
- Demonstrated proficiency in both Revit and AutoCad.
- Strong design and technical knowledge required for schematic design and preparation of quality construction documents.

We offer benefits to include:

- Paid personal time and holidays.
- Health care insurance.
- 401K retirement plan. RDB automatically contributes 3% of the employee's annual salary to the employee's plan (no employee matching required) in accordance with IRS Safe Harbor guidelines.
- Professional dues and fees paid.
- Profit sharing bonuses.
- Flexible work hours and partial remote work considered.

RDB's staff is highly qualified and most of our associates have been with the RDB Team for over 10 years. Our employees are involved in all phases of projects to include initial marketing presentations, schematic design, preparation of construction documents and construction administration. As a Project Designer or Architect, you will work closely with RDB's Principals and Project Managers during all phases of projects and you will develop business relationships with our clients.

RDB recognizes that all our employees have both professional and personal interests. Our office provides a work environment that allows our associates to have a healthy work/life balance.
