

Designer (Entry Level Position) Full-Time

About RINKA

TO INSPIRE THROUGH THOUGHTFUL DESIGN

RINKA is a design collective specializing in creative problem-solving and innovative placemaking to create meaningful experiences for people. We maintain a broad-based architectural practice that connects inspiring designs with practical and functional solutions. Collaborating to ensure success, our team builds long-term relationships with progressive and visionary clients.

Our design approach has fostered deep relationships with amazing clients in Fort Lauderdale, and we are looking to grow our Florida office. This unique position will collaborate with our Milwaukee office on other projects across the country as well.

As a Designer

Well qualified candidates understand what it means to be a professional, are passionate about design and will exhibit strong design, communication, and organizational skills. The ability to work well in a collaborative / team environment on high profile projects, to multi-task and to adapt to changing projects in a fast-paced environment, and to self-direct and manage time efficiently are required.

What We Look For:

- Bachelor of Architecture degree or a Master of Architecture degree
- Up to four years of post-graduate professional experience
- Ability to communicate and collaborate with clients / consultants / contractors and internal employees on all levels
- Understanding of architectural technology and production documentation for projects of various sizes and complexities
- Understanding of basic code / regulatory requirements and building constructability and detailing
- Strong knowledge of Revit, AutoCAD, and Microsoft Office Programs
- Knowledge of other modeling and rendering programs (SketchUp, Adobe Suite, etc) is a plus
- Strong design and visualization skills
- Enjoy working in an exciting, open studio
- Strive to push boundaries and develop innovative design solutions
- Ability to juggle multiple tasks, collaborate on teams of various sizes and work well under deadlines
- Registered or pursuing registration preferred, LEED AP is a plus

Our Culture Rocks!

At RINKA, we take our projects seriously, not ourselves. You will be both joining an established cohort, and also paving the way for your own identity. Our social events represent our teams' diverse range of interests, and we are eager to shape our involvement in the community of Fort Lauderdale. Our office shared with Affiliated Development at The SIX13 is walkable from the Brightline Train and the FATvillage Arts and Entertainment enclave. RINKA's office in The SIX13 is a ten-minute drive from the beach and less than five minutes from the area's popular restaurants and bars.
